Walk Forever By My Side

he 1986 Junior Prom was a special night for all. Held at the Meadowbrook in Charlestown, we danced the night away to the tunes of D.J., Mr. Gallman. The Junior Prom Court included Kim Connor, Elisa Degnan, Coleen Huggins, Cathy Kearney, Kris Ravo, Liz Worthington, and our queen, Judi Hempe. The entire court danced to our theme, "Walk Forever by my Side" by The Alarm. After our eventful evening, we progressed to the Coast Guard House to enjoy a very early morning breakfast. For some the night continued, and for others it became just a memory.

FACES IN THE CROWD

Homecoming . . . The Mariners Clash With Hope

This year's Homecoming game took place on October 18, 1986. It was a home match, and although the Mariners put up a strong fight, they were defeated in the last quarter by a skillful Hope team.

The loss, however, did not diminish the fun that was had by all during the half-time festivities. The representatives for Homecoming from the Senior class were Kristin Ravo, Elisa Degnan, and Monica Clays, escorted by Oliver Tutt, Michael Malgieri and Michael Lurgio (respectively). Elisa was crowned Homecoming Queen. In the float competition, the Sophomores won, but all of the classes are to be congratulated on their fine efforts.

MARINER LOG — '83-'87

e the class of 1987, are a very unique class. We are the only class to have had five different advisors in four years. The Class of '87 also began the Donkey Basketball tradition.

In our freshman year, we were led by a committee of six representatives. They were Susan Allen, Alisa Ferraro, Cathy Kearney, Mike Malgieri, Dawne Younkin and Lori Podedworny. Mr. Kimball was our fearless leader. Kristin Morris represented our class on our American Revolution float. Our fundraisers for the year consisted of a No-Bake bake sale and a very successful Hawaiian Dance.

With the change of the new year came the change of our advisors and officers. Our new advisors were Mrs. Boynton and Mrs. Swaboda. The new class officers were: President — Cathy Kearney, Secretary — Lori Podedworny, and Treasurer — Dawne Younkin. The theme for Homecoming 1984 was Fairy Tales. Dawn Grello, portraying Cinderella, represented our class. The school's first Annual Sno-Ball Dance was introduced this year, Kristin Morris and Dawn Grello represented our class once again. Also occurring in this year was the Donkey Basketball game initiated by the Class of '87. It proved to be a huge success. As the year came to a close, preparations for the Junior Prom began . . .

Our Junior year arrived quickly. Mrs. Boyle and Mrs. Mossey took over as advisors in January, 1986. Again our class officers changed and our new leaders were: President — Monica Clays, Vice-President — Cathy Kearney, Secretary — Amy Griffin, and Treasurer — Tracy McGarty. The theme for Homecoming was "Countries." Cathy Kearney and her escort Michael Malgieri represented our class in a French Cafe. In November we sponsored the third Annual Sadie Hawkins Dance. Once again, in January, we sponsored a very successful Donkey Basketball game. Before we knew it, it was show time! The Junior Class Variety Show was in the making. Amy Jones, the director of "Kids in Revue," got the show put together and ready for opening night. The M.C.'s for the evening were Dawne Younkin and Bob Shuman. Our Junior Class Act was "The Junior Class Shuffle," a take-off from "The Superbowl Shuffle." Our Prom was held at the Meadowbrook in Charlestown on May 16, 1986. Our D.J., Mr. Gallman, kept us dancing and at 11:30 pm the Court was introduced. Judi Hempe picked the white rose and was crowned Queen. Her court included: Liz Worthington, Kris Ravo, Cathy Kearney, Coleen Huggins, Elisa Degnan, and Kim Connor. After Judi was crowned, everyone danced to our theme "Walk Forever by my Side." As the year slid to a close, preparations for our final year at NHS began.

Finally we are Seniors! Mrs. Mossey and Mrs. Boyle remained our advisors for this important year. Our officers for the year are President — Monica Clays, Vice-President - Cathy Kearney, Secretaries — Kristin Ravo and Kathy Laliberte, and Treasurer Jen Carey. Seasons was the theme for Homecoming '86. Our float was a Beach scene, representing the summer of '87. Monica Clays, Elisa Degnan and Kristin Ravo were the class representatives. Elisa was crowned queen during half-time of the game against Hope. Our fundraisers for the year consist of a successful Welcome Back Dance, Donkey Basketball and the traditional Magazine Drive. Our Prom will be held at the site of all of Narragansett's Senior Proms, the Dunes Club.

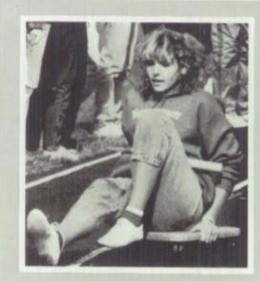

The friendships we have formed over the past years have been special to each of us as individuals. And though we all await Graduation night with eagerness, many tears will be shed as our farewells will be made. Good Luck to the class of 1987 in all of your ventures.

TOMOKIVO GOGAMI

Tomo Gogami Urawa, Japan

Tomo came to us this year as a foreign exchange student and won our hearts with his gentleness, studiousness and eagerness to become fluent in English. You could always see him with his ubiquitous Japanese-English dictionary.

Tomo won a position on the varsity soccer and wrestling teams and participated fully in the life of the school.

Tomo is living with his host family, The Carleton Potters, and will return to Japan following his graduation in June. He plans to enter the University there to study engineering.

THE GARDEN

There once was a woman who longed to have a flower garden. Each year she would visit her neighbor, who had the most beautiful garden she had ever seen, and he would give her cuttings and he would give her cuttings and here is a large to the second second and he would give her cuttings and seeds for her own garden.

But when she would return home, she would change her mind at the last minute saying, "But my neighbor's garden is so much lovelier than anything I could hope to grow. And he knows so much more about gardening — I could never hope to grow a garden half so lovely as that. Why should I even try?"

One day her neighbor stopped by her home and saw that she had not one flower growing anywhere around her house.

"I've provided you with so much," he said, "and yet you have done nothing at all with what I have given you!"

And so it is with each of us. The Lord gives us talents and expects us to develop them. We cannot judge our worth by comparing ourselves to others, but must bloom and grow the best we can with what we have been given.

The Narragansett PTO wishes that each new day that dawns for you be an opportunity to use the gifts and talents given you, to be the best that you can be.
